U.S. National Junior Team Selection Criteria

- Swimmers qualified for the 2005-06 National Junior Team by having the top-ranked performance at a series of national-level meets in 2005 or by making an automatic qualifying time standard.
- The girls on the team must be 15 or younger at the time they were selected, and the boys must be 17 or younger.
- For specific selection criteria information, visit www.usaswimming.org (click on Coaches at the top, then National Team on the left)

U.S. National Junior Team Facts

- At every Olympics since the inception of the program, at least one former National Junior Team member has qualified for the U.S. Olympic Team.
- Since the first team in 1989-90, U.S. National Junior Team alumni include:
 - 47 Olympians (10 percent of the alumni)
 - 27 Olympic medalists
 - 23 members of the 2004 Olympic Team (54 percent of the team)
 - 5 individual medalists from the 2004 Olympic Team
 - Natalie Coughlin
