INTERNATIONAL STAFF SELECTION

The USA Swimming International Competition Coaching Pool is a candidate pool available to the National Team Head Coach or his designee for selection of coaches to serve on staff of National Team related competition and camps.

More information on the International Competition Coaching Pool can be found at usaswimming.org

INTERNATIONAL STAFF SELECTION: HEAD COACH

The Head Coach for an international competition will be named before the Trials for that competition. The Head Coach will be selected from the International Competition Coaching Pool.

INTERNATIONAL STAFF SELECTION: ASSISTANT COACHES

A candidate pool of nine for the assistant coaches for each gender will be selected before the Trials competition from the International Competition Coaching Pool. In order to be in the candidate pool, a coach must agree to be a part of the international competition coaching staff before the Trials competition.

The National Team Head Coach has the discretion to add a coach who is not in the candidate pool to the team.

INTERNATIONAL STAFF SELECTION: OLYMPIC TEAM

The men's and women's head coach and one assistant coach will be named to the Olympic Team before US Olympic Team Trials.

Additional assistant coaches will be selected according the procedure outline for International Staff Selection above.

The Olympic Team Head Coach Application process for 2012 will start in the fall of 2010.
