Disability-Specific Sports Organizations

The following organizations offer disability-specific swimming competitions and/or educational resources. In some cases, the organizations also offer athlete development programs such as club/swimming practices, camps, and clinics. The international organizations conduct quadrennial multi-sports competitions analogous to the Olympic Games: (a) the International Paralympic Committee conducts Paralympic Games in the same years as Olympic Games; (b) CISS conducts the Deaflympics in the years following the Olympic Games; and (c) Special Olympics International conducts the World Special Olympics Games in the years preceding the Olympic Games.
