2022 – U.S. vs. Australia – Sydney, Australia

After nearly a seven-year hiatus, the Duel in the Pool has returned to its original format: The United States of America versus Australia. Originating in 2003 and debuting in Indianapolis, the Duel in the Pool began as a way to match the top two swimming countries in the world, the United States and Australia, against one another in a head-to-head battle for world supremacy and bragging rights. The 2022 U.S. roster is headlined by Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 medalists Chase Kalisz, Annie Lazor, Michael Andrew and Bella Sims, while the Australian team features Emma McKeon, Mack Horton, Kaylee McKeown and Zac Stubblety-Cook. The 2022 edition of Duel in the Pool also marks the first time in the competition's history where Para athletes will be featured. The U.S. Para swimmer contingent features McKenzie Coan, Jamal Hill, Noah Jaffe and Lizzi Smith, while Australia will be represented by Ellie Cole, Matt Levy, Will Martin and Ash McConnell.

2015 – U.S. vs. European All-Stars – Indianapolis, Indiana

The seventh Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool in Indianapolis, featured a star-studded field of top American swimmers competing against a squad of European All-Stars from across the continent. The American contingent took down the European All-Star team by a score of 155-107, and set a whopping 16 American records along the way. Matt Grevers had an impressive showing, winning both of his individual events and helping the U.S. to first-place finishes in both the 4x100m medley and 4x100m freestyle relays.

2013 – U.S. vs. European All-Stars – Glasgow, Scotland

In one of the most exciting finishes international swimming has ever seen, Team USA capped a 23-point comeback with a victory in the tie-breaking 4x50m mixed medley relay to claim the Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool title over the European All-Stars, 132-131, in Glasgow, Scotland. Anchored by Simone Manuel, Team USA delivered a short-course, world-record swim of 1:31.17 to claim the first lead for the Americans over two days of thrilling competition. Also keying the comeback were American record swims from Michael McBroom (800m free), Tom Shields (200m fly) and Kevin Cordes (100m, 200m breast). Conor Dwyer won three events for the U.S. – the 200m free, 200m IM and 400m IM.

2011 – U.S. vs. European All-Stars – Atlanta, Georgia

Team USA squared off against a team of European All-Stars in the fifth edition of the Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool in Atlanta, Georgia. In the short course meters meet, the U.S. was led by Ryan Lochte, who won the 200m IM, 400m IM and 200m back, and double event winners Ricky Berens, Matt Grevers, Brendan Hansen and Missy Franklin. The U.S. women's 4x100m medley relay team of Natalie Coughlin, Rebecca Soni, Dana Vollmer and Franklin was victorious in world record fashion, and five American records also fell. The U.S. won 21 of the 30 events contested and took the duel by a final score of 181.5-80.5.

2009 – U.S. vs. E-Stars (Great Britain, Germany, Italy) – Manchester, England

In the 2009 Mutual of Omaha Duel in the pool, the Americans traveled to Manchester, England, to take on the E-Stars, a team made up of swimmers from Great Britain, Germany and Italy. For the first time ever, the meet was held in short course meters, and swimmers on both sides took advantage of the opportunity to break records. Rebecca Soni (100m and 200m breast), Julia Smit (200m and 400m IM) and Nick Thoman (100m back) of the U.S. set individual world records at the meet, while the U.S. men's and women's 4x100m medley relays and the men's 4x100m free relay set world records as well. In all, the U.S. won 21 of 30 events, setting 21 American records in the process and beating the E-Stars by a final score of 185-78.

2007 – U.S. vs. Australia – Sydney, Australia

The Sydney Olympic Park Aquatic Center, site of the 2000 Olympic Games, played host to the United States and Australia in the third Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool. There was little room for error as the two countries fought to earn the coveted team title. Katie Hoff buoyed the American women with her wins in the 200m and 400m IM, while Jessica Schipper and Libby Lenton kept Australia in the hunt with two victories each in a relatively close women's meet. Meanwhile, the American men had no trouble silencing the Aussies, winning all 14 of the events contested. Ryan Lochte, Michael Phelps and Brendan Hansen each won both of their individual events, leading the U.S. to a convincing win over Australia, 181.5-129.5.

2005 – U.S. vs. Australia – Irvine, California

Following the 2005 FINA World Championships, the U.S. World Championships Team faced off against Australia's World Championships Team in Irvine, California, in the second Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool. Eager for revenge, the Australian women came out with a vengeance, winning nine of the 14 events on the women's side and edging the Americans in points, 76-70. The U.S. men were even more dominant, crushing the Australian men, 120-26, and winning all but one event. Overall, the Americans prevailed, 190-102. Not a single world record or American record fell at the meet, but several swimmers posted multiple wins on each side. For the Americans, Katie Hoff (200m and 400m IM), Aaron Peirsol (100m and 200m back), Brendan Hansen (100m and 200m breast) and Michael Phelps (200m and 400m IM, 200m fly) each won two or more events, while Australia's Libby Lenton (100m and 200m free), Leisel Jones (100m and 200m breast) and Jessica Schipper (100m and 200m fly) each earned victories in two events apiece.

2003 – U.S. vs. Australia – Indianapolis, Indiana

After years of trash talking, breaking world records and winning gold medals, the United States and Australia finally devised a way to determine the best swimming country in the world: the Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool. Not surprisingly, both the U.S. and Australia brought stacked rosters to Indianapolis, hoping to earn bragging rights over their rival. However, the competition did not turn out to be as competitive as it appeared on paper, as the U.S. won 21 of the 26 events en route to a commanding 196-74 win. Michael Phelps provided some fireworks for the crowd, breaking the world record in the 400m IM and just missing another world record in the 100m fly by three one-hundredths of a second. Amanda Beard (100m and 200m breast), Natalie Coughlin (100m back, 100m fly), Kaitlin Sandeno (200m fly, 400m IM) and Ed Moses (100m and 200m breast) also won multiple events for the U.S., while Grant Hackett won the 400m and 1500m free for Australia.

PERSONAL:

High School: Bainbridge, '19

College: Northwestern, '23

Hobbies Outside the Pool: Watching anime, reading manga, trying new restaurants, building mechanical keyboards, spending time with friends.

Most Influential Person: "Nathan Adrian. He's a fellow Washingtonian that hails from a city pretty close to me and I've long looked up to him since he visited an old club team I was on. He's always been a natural leader and role model and although he has no idea who I am, I hope I can meet him again one day. Also he's Asian-American which is something that has become a larger part of my identity as I've gotten older, so it is cool to see representation on the swimming stage at such a high level for so long."

Favorites: race: "I don't have one because it changes whenever I go a best time or have a memorable swim. I think the 100 breast prelims at [2019] Junior Worlds was one of my most memorable and made me feel like I could stand on the same stage as all the fast swimmers and idols I had in the sport. I didn't feel like I was just some random who luckily made the team, but instead a contributing factor to the success of swimming for Team USA. I also give a lot of credit to that swim and my club coach for making me set current goals of making more U.S. teams."

Favorites: sports teams: Miami Heat, Seattle Seahawks, Strawhat Pirates, Akina Speed Stars, Akagi Red Suns

PERSONAL:

High School: Pioneer, '13

College: UCLA, '17

College Major: Geography

Future Professional Aspirations: "Work with kids to inspire passion for healthy lifestyles through movement in nature, healthy eating/connection to land."

Favorites: race: "My 100 freestyle at NCAA my senior year. I was sick, and not performing near where I was seeded in any of my events, after finishing close to last in an event I was positioned for a top-3 finish, I didn't even want to finish the meet. Coach Cyndi gave me the option to scratch the last day. I stayed up all night unsure what to do, in the morning I knew I would regret it for the rest of my life if I quit on the last day of my collegiate career. I remember being in lane seven at IUPUI and walking up to the block looking up at my parents in the stands I felt like for even standing up in that moment, giving it one more shot, that I had won. I made finals for the first time in that event, don't even remember my time or place but it's a moment I've looked back on many times since as a reminder of my resilience."
