About the Pan Pacific Championships

The Pan Pacific Swimming Championships are held under the oversight of the Pan Pacific Swimming Association. The Association was established in the mid 1980s and is made up of the four founding swimming federations – Swimming Australia, Swimming Canada, the Japan Amateur Swimming Federation and USA Swimming. These charter nations developed the concept of the swimming competition to provide their national teams with first-class international competition between the two major international swimming competitions – the Olympic Games and the World Aquatics World Championships.

Most Decorated Swimmers in Pan Pacs History

The Next Wave: A New Look for Team USA

While the squad benefits from the seasoned leadership of six veterans: Katie Ledecky, Simone Manuel, Regan Smith, Ashley Twichell, Michael Andrew, and Bobby Finke, the remainder of the team represents a fresh chapter in American swimming. With the competition returning for the first time since 2018, this meet serves as the international debut for the vast majority of the roster. This influx of new talent, balanced by proven gold-medal experience, sets the stage for a critical development cycle as the team turns its focus toward the LA28 Olympic Games.

Coaching Staff

usaswimming.org | @USASwimming | #PanPacs2026 | All Stats as of July 27, 2026

Leading the coaching staff is renowned head coach Bob Bowman.

Bowman, Director of Swimming and Diving and Head Men's Coach at the University of Texas, most recently coached the Longhorn men to back-to-back NCAA team titles in 2025 and 2026 after guiding Arizona State to a national championship in 2024. He is a six-time USA Swimming Coach of the Year and was named the College Swimming Coaches Association Coach of the Year in 2024 and 2025.

"I am humbled and grateful to lead this team at this summer's Pan Pacific Championships," Bowman said. "This meet has traditionally been a launching pad for new talent and an opportunity for experienced veterans to begin their Olympic campaigns in earnest. We have a strong group of athletes, coaches, and staff who will represent our country well."

Bowman previously served as head coach for the U.S. men's team at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. This will be the second time Bowman has served as a coach at the Pan Pacific Championships; he was the head coach of the men's team in 2014.

"We are thrilled to bring this group of talented coaches together to lead our Pan Pacific Championships Team," USA Swimming National Team Managing Director Greg Meehan said. "They are quality people, teachers, and mentors whose ability to connect with others will strengthen our team's performance."

The Pan Pacific Championships will feature top swimmers from across the Pacific Rim, including the United States, Australia, Canada, and Japan, and serve as a key international competition in the global swimming calendar.

"One of our primary goals is to appoint coaching staffs who represent a combination of experience and youth," Meehan said. "The depth of quality coaches in the United States is truly one of our greatest assets, and this staff reiterates that."
